8 Easy Steps to a Successful Party

Dear

Thank you for inviting me into your home to share extraordinary new products and helpful ideas from Tupperware. I can't wait to tell you and your friends how Tupperware can make your lives more manageable and give you more time to do things that really matter to you. Here are 8 Steps to ensure a party that's enjoyable for you – because it's easy – and enjoyable for your guests – because they will have fun learning. I look forward to working with you to make your party a success!

Tupperware saves TIME – SPACE – TASTE – and WASTE!

Start your Tupperware business with this party! Ask me how!

1. Select your free gifts Look through the catalogue and choose the products you'd like to receive, including the exclusive Host Gifts.
2. Make a guest list. Use this guest list to get started.
3. Start inviting! Invite double the number you'd like to come because not everyone will be able to make it. Encourage guests to bring a friend.
4. Show or send a catalogue or brochure to friends. Invite those who can't attend to place orders. These are added to your sales total, which mean greater gift selections for you.
5. Get advance order details. You'll need a name and address as well as item number, product name and price for each item ordered. I can help you figure out the tax, shipping and handling charges; you'll just need to collect the total amount due from the customer prior to the party. We accept Cash, Visa, and Master Card or cheques payable to myself,.
6. Confirm with your guests. Call a day or two before the party.
7. Keep refreshments simple. I recommend serving refreshments near the display so I can stay close to answer any questions after the party.
8. Encourage friends to host a party. Prior to your party ask a couple of friends if they would be interested in receiving Host Gifts and other benefits free.
